The Kats for Christ ministry has been known by different names over the past 50 years. It's where the members of Huntsville Church of Christ give of their time, love, and resources to pour into the lives of students attending Sam Houston State University. HCOC gives students a sense of security and a place where they can continue their walk with Jesus, or for many, begin their walk. Last Sunday the KFC crew “gave back” with the annual Katbacker Dinner. Attendees were entertained with a circus themed event full of music, comedy, and acrobatics. The meal was prepared and enthusiastically served by the students. The event ended with testimonials from the “entertainers” about how the KFC has touched their lives as new or returning students who navigated their way through the pandemic last year. That, for some, was the best act of the night. Thank you, Todd Tipton, for leading these young adults with Christian love and grace as the HCOC college minister. In addition, a big thank you to the many Katbackers & to Gonzalo Correa, who serves as deacon for the KFC ministry.

PRISON MINISTRY NEWS

One does not talk about ministering behind bars in Texas and the country without mentioning the "Huntsville church of Christ." Prison ministry & the local HCOC are synonymous. Things are about to open back up in the prison with changes. Jerry Harris and others will no longer be volunteers. Jerry has been a volunteer for 45 years! We need others to come and help. Please contact Freddie Anderson (936-291-1405) and let him know that you want to be a part of this life changing-community altering-dynamic ministry. Also, see John Spencer.
