Attention Ladies...We will soon be having sign-ups for this next year of Heartfelt! This is such an incredible ministry and if you are a female, ages 18–100, and don’t know about it, please contact me!

We are currently looking for HeartMoms who would be willing to host an occasional monthly meeting in your home. Our year goes from September through May and each group has one meeting per month. The Heart Moms provide a meal and a devotional for HeartSisters.

(A MOM is someone who is the age/stage of someone who no longer has children in their home. A SISTER is 18 or older and still in the stage of raising children or unmarried with no children and anywhere in between.) Heartfelt is a ministry that was created based on Titus 2 where it talks about older women teaching the younger women.

Our real need right now is for anyone who is willing to host at least a couple of meetings in your home. If this is something you are willing to do, or if you just want to find out more about Heartfelt, please email or text me. ~Delanise Taylor: (936)661-6690
