New Sermon Series for November

Mark your calendar for Sunday evening, November 21st for our Thanksgiving Gathering. Faith Lutheran Church, Huntsville Nazarene Church and Huntsville Church of Christ will join together in thanking God for all our blessings! More details to come soon!!

Dear Church family,

I am calling on you again this year to donate $20 for food packets for our brothers and sisters in Iglesia de Cristo Las Banderas, Nicaragua. Each family will receive a package of staple foods such as rice, beans, oil, sugar, etc. My goal is to collect enough funds to provide for 25 families. God Bless you and Thank You!

PRAYER REQUESTS

Todd Tipton was admitted to the hospital in Conroe last Monday for dehydration and GI issues. On Thursday, he underwent surgery to remove a large mass and a section of his large and small intestine. Todd is doing well, his prognosis is good, but will remain in the hospital for several days.

John & Renee Spencer's grandson, Weston, continues to improve. He is officially gaining weight, and doing much better. The Spencer family appreciates your prayers.

Freddy & Tonie Sikes' six-year-old niece, Tori Wiley, needs our prayers as she will undergo a series of neuro-psych evaluations, MRI, and oncology consultations and labs.

Billy Don Avritt (Kerri's husband, Kristy Wheeler's father, and Helen Jones' son-in-law) recently suffered a blood clot on the brain. He came home on November 4 and is doing well.

OTHER NEWS

Service Assignments for November are available in the information center in the foyer.

Las Damas de Baxter still has an Elliptical Exercise Machine that was not purchased during the recent auction. If anyone would like to make a fair donation to Baxter it will be yours! Please contact Kathy Hudson (936.662.5025, k57hudson@gmail.com) or another committee member if you are interested.
